Call to order, Introductions, & Agenda Overview	• Call to order at 12:02pm. • Committee members and Health Net staff introduced themselves.	N/A	N/A
Working Together to Keep Medi-Cal Members Covered	Garrick Wong (Senior Manager, Medi-Cal Strategy, Execution, and Engagement) and Monica Nagle (Director, Medi-Cal Enrollment and Retention) discussed statewide partnerships to prepare for upcoming federal and state medical coverage and access changes. They shared upcoming Medi-Cal eligibility changes, including mandatory work requirements, six-month eligibility redeterminations, and copayments.
Non-Specialty Mental Health Services (NSMHS) Overview	Ayleen Dimailig (Program Manager, Community Advisory Committee) shared an overview of Non-Specialty Mental Health Services (NSMHS) and its importance in supporting mild to moderate behavioral health needs.

NSMHS Outreach and Education Plan	Ayleen Dimailig (Program Manager, Community Advisory Committee) also reviewed the NSMHS outreach and education plan with the committee and shared how their feedback informed last year's plan. Additionally, she polled the committee members on their experiences accessing these services and how to make outreach more culturally accessible.
Community Connect	Pao Houa (Senior Health Equity Specialist) shared information on the Community Connect program and the FindHelp platform used to identify local resources and support members and community partners. Additionally, she reviewed the social needs assessment feature that helps gather information on social drivers of health, such as housing, utilities, food, and transportation. Lastly, she discussed the Cozeva integration which allows providers to conduct social needs assessments and refer social services more efficiently.
CAC Updates	Ayleen Dimailig (Program Manager, Community Advisory Committee) shared links to online health education resources like the Krames Online Library and HealthHub.
Community Sharing/Open Forum	Committee members were invited to share items for Community Sharing/Open Forum. Members requested support. Meeting was adjourned at 1:30pm.
