

Share the Care: Who does it now?

Directions: Place a tick mark in the column that matches who is currently charged with doing the task in Column 1. If more than one person, place a tick mark in more than one column. Add up the tick marks vertically and place the total number of tick marks in the totals column

Tasks	Clinician (MD, NP, PA)	RN	MA	Receptionist
Orders mammograms for healthy women between 50 and 70 years old
Refills high blood pressure medications for patients with well-controlled hypertension
Performs diabetes foot exams
Reviews lab tests to separate normals from abnormals
Cares for patients with uncomplicated urinary tract infections
Finds patients who are overdue for LDL and orders lipid panel
Prescribes statins for patients with elevated LDL
Creates action plans for lifestyle modifications
Does medication reconciliation
Follows up by phone with patients treated for depression
Totals				